A - Governance Policy Framework

1. PRINCIPLES OF GOVERNANCE AND BOARD ACCOUNTABILITY

- (i) The NRAC (Association) is a body corporate and politic incorporated under the laws of Canada Not-for-profit Corporations Act, SC 209 chapter 23 and regulations, to serve active and retired members of the Canadian Naval Reserve.
- (ii) The Board of Directors (Board) governs and manages the Association in accordance with governing legislation, By-Laws, and governance policies.
- (iii) The Board adheres to a model of good governance through which it provides strategic leadership and direction by establishing policies, strategic goals, making governance decisions and monitoring performance.
- (iv) The Board acts at all times in the best interests of Association, having regard for its fiduciary responsibilities and its accountabilities to the membership.
- (v) The Board maintains an environment based on values as approved by the Board and strives for a consensual approach to decision making, based on evidence and best practice, while respecting and valuing dissenting views.
- (vi) The Board is accountable to its members for:
 - Ongoing connection with the membership on all matters to enhance connections. between the Association and its members and among its members.
 - Developing and executing events that advance the interests of the membership.
 - Communicating with regard to the on-going activities of Association through its website, publications and through social media including Facebook.
 - Operating and updating the UNTD.org Website.
 - Maintaining a strong focus on continuous improvement with regard to the present and future of the Association.
 - Maintaining and enhancing external relationships with related organizations.

- (vii) Board meetings will be conducted in English. Official materials from the Board will be produced in English. If the Board has to respond to public enquiries made in French, the Board's answer shall be submitted in French. Over time, communications from the Board shall strive to reflect both official languages of Canada.

2. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BOARD

The Board shall fulfill the following roles and responsibilities.

a) Roles of the Board

(1) Policy Formulation

Establish policies to provide guidance to those empowered with the responsibility to lead and manage Association operations.

(2) Decision-Making

On matters that specifically require Board approval, choose from alternatives that are consistent with Board policies and that advance the Association goals.

(3) Monitoring

Monitor and assess outcomes of approved projects.

b) Responsibilities of the Board:

The Board fulfills the following responsibilities, either directly, or through delegation to its Board Committees, which report to and are accountable to the Board.

(1) Strategic Direction

- (i) Establish and periodically review the Association's mission, vision and core values.
- (ii) Promote effective collaboration between the Board and membership of the Association in the achievement of the Association vision, mission and core values and/or other policy and planning initiatives.
- (iii) Monitor corporate performance regularly against the approved corporate plan and annual budget.

(2) Excellent Leadership and Management Performance

- (i) Delegate responsibility, authority to individuals assigned to carry out various tasks assigned by the Board.
- (ii) Hold accountable officers, committees and those Directors assigned projects by the Board.
- (iii) Ensure compliance with the By-Laws of the Association and the responsibilities under the Canada Not-for-profit Corporations Act and regulations.
- (iv) Provide for the orderly succession of the Chair/President, corporate officers and committee chairs.

(3) Financial and Organizational Viability

- (i) Review and approve the annual operating budget and monitor financial performance against the budget and any established performance indicators.
- (ii) Review financial and organizational risks and risk mitigation plans regularly.
- (iii) Approve an investment policy and monitor compliance.
- (iv) Review periodically financial reports and approve the annual financial statement.
- (v) Annually review and set membership fees.

(4) Program Quality and Effectiveness

- (i) Review appointments and reappointments of all leadership positions
- (ii) Ensure that there is a process to address ethical issues arising within the Association.

(5) Board Effectiveness

- (i) Ensure regular communication within the Board and ensure Committee and project chairs report regularly to the board.

- (ii) Recruit Directors and, where appropriate, non-Director members of Board Committees who are, skilled, experienced, and committed to the Association.
- (iii) Establish a plan for the succession of Directors and Officers.
- (iv) Establish goals and planning for the Board and its committees and ensure that the Board receives timely appropriate information to ensure informed policy formulation and decision making.
- (v) Periodically review policies concerning governance structures and processes to maximize the effective functioning of the Board.

(6) Build Relationships

- (i) Build and maintain good relationships and communications with the Royal Canadian Navy (RCN), the Naval Reserve Command team, Naval Reserve Divisions (NRDs), the Naval Association of Canada (NAC), the Royal Canadian Navy (RCN) and other related organizations that are relevant to the membership of the Association.
- (ii) Maintain open and transparent communication, cooperation with the Association members and where appropriate, the broader public.

3. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF INDIVIDUAL DIRECTORS

a) Fiduciary Duty and Duty of Care

- (i) Every Director, in exercising his or her powers and discharging his or her duties to the Association shall act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Association and exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.
- (ii) Every Director shall comply with the Canada Not-for-profit Corporations Act and the Association By-Laws.
- (iii) In instances where the interests of Directors conflict with those of the Association, Directors must act in the best interests of the Association, commensurate with their duties as a responsible corporate Director.

(iv) Directors with special skill and knowledge are expected to apply that skill and knowledge to matters that come before the Board.

(v) A Director does not represent the specific interests of any constituency or group.

b) Exercise of Authority

A Director carries out the powers of office only when acting as a voting member during a duly constituted meeting of the Board or one of its appointed bodies. A Director respects the responsibilities delegated by the Board to individual members.

c) Confidentiality

Every Director shall respect the confidentiality of matters brought before the Board and all committees, keeping in mind that unauthorized statements could adversely affect the interests of the Association.

d) Conflict of Interest

A Director complies with the Association's Board of Directors Conflict of Interest policies and the Declaration of Interest as prescribed in Board Policies A-1-4 and A-1-6.

e) Teamwork

A Director works positively, cooperatively, congenially, and respectfully with all members of the Board of Directors in the performance of his/her duties.

f) Policy Solidarity

The official spokesperson for the Board is the Chair. A Director supports the decisions and policies of the Board in discussions with outsiders, even if the Director holds another view or voiced another view during a Board discussion or was absent from the Board meeting. A Director refers requests for statements on behalf of the Board to the Board Chair.

g) Representation

A Director is expected to represent the Board, when requested, in activities within the Association and in external activities with other organizations.

h) Formal Dissent

A Director is deemed to have agreed with the decisions and policies of the Board, whether they are present at or absent from a Board meeting, unless he/she formally records a dissenting view with the Board Secretary. While an absent Director may formally record a dissenting view prior to the approval of the minutes at the next meeting, this does not change the decision reached by the Board.

i) Attendance

A Director is generally expected to attend all Board meetings including Board retreats and assigned Standing or Ad Hoc committee meetings in person or by electronic means. All Directors are expected to serve on at least one Board Standing Committee and to represent the Board when requested.

j) Time Commitment

A Director is expected to commit adequate time in preparation for and attendance at Board meetings, assigned Committee meetings and events.

k) Participation

A Director comes prepared to meetings (of both Board and its Committees) and events, asks informed questions, and makes a constructive contribution to discussions.

l) Competencies

A Director actively contributes specific expertise and skills which will inform Board discussion and decisions. However, individual Directors, unless otherwise authorized by the Board do not provide professional advice to the Board.

m) Professional Development

A Director takes advantage of opportunities to be educated and informed about the Board and key issues related to the Association through participation in initial orientation and ongoing Board activity.

n) Evaluation

A Director participates in the evaluation of the performance of the Board as a whole and of their performance as a Director.

4. DIRECTOR'S DECLARATION

NRAC ASSOCIATION

A Board Director will execute a Director's Declaration in the following form immediately upon becoming a Board Director:

To: NRAC

I hereby consent to act as a Director of the Association.

As a Director I acknowledge and accept that:

- The Board of Directors as a whole is accountable in accordance with the Principles of Governance and Accountability (A-1).
- I agree to comply with the Association By-Laws and Board policies as those may be amended from time to time.
- I will comply with the performance expectations as stated in the appended documents "Roles and Responsibilities of the Board of Directors" (A-2) and the "Roles and Responsibilities of Individual Directors" (A-3).
- I do not have a conflict of interest which would prevent me from serving as a member of the Board and I also undertake to advise the Secretary should any conflict arise pursuant to Conflict of Interest provisions in By-Law #1.
- I hereby consent pursuant to the provisions of By-Law # 1 in accordance with S 4.05 to the holding of meetings of the Board of Directors or of any Committee of the Board of Directors by means of such telephone, electronic or other communication facilities so as permit all persons participating in the meeting to communicate with each other simultaneously and instantaneously.
- I confirm that I am able and have the means to attend meetings promptly.
- I undertake to advise the Association in writing of any change of address as soon as possible after such change.

5. GUIDELINES FOR THE SELECTION OF DIRECTORS

a) Directors

(1) Overarching Principle:

The Board and its Committees should have members that collectively possess a range of specific skills and expertise needed for the Board to fulfill its governance roles and responsibilities and possess the time necessary to fulfill their responsibilities to the Association.

(2) Profile of a Director

The generic qualities and personal attributes expected of all Directors include:

- (i) commitment to the mission of the Association.
- (ii) served in the Naval Reserve.
- (iii) an appreciation of the diverse needs of the communities served by the Association.
- (iv) experience in and understanding of governance including the roles and responsibilities of the Board and individual Directors.
- (v) enthusiasm for the role and its demands.
- (vi) personal and professional integrity, wisdom, and judgment.
- (vii) ability to work positively, cooperatively, and respectfully and communicate effectively as a member of the team with other members of the Board.
- (viii) ability to provide wise counsel and ask relevant questions at a strategic level.

- (ix) ability and willingness to commit the necessary time to prepare for and participate in Board orientation and continuing education, Board meetings, committee meetings, retreats, and selected educational and promotional events.
- (x) commitment to comply with the conflict-of-interest policies.
- (xi) ability and willingness to represent the Association as required and be an ambassador.

b) Board Profile

Beyond the generic qualities and personal attributes expected of all Directors as outlined in the Profile of a Director, the members of the Board will collectively strive to possess a range of specific skills, expertise, and experience from among the following:

- (i) senior level business management.
- (ii) strategic planning.
- (iii) leadership.
- (iv) diversity.
- (v) change management in complex organizations.
- (vi) financial expertise, literacy, and analysis.
- (vii) governance.
- (viii) human resource management.
- (ix) law.
- (x) marketing and communications.
- (xi) risk management

6. BOARD SIZE AND COMPOSITION

a) Board Size

- (i) The Composition of the Board of Directors shall consist of a minimum of 3 Directors and a maximum of 20.
- (ii) Directors are elected at the third annual meeting of the Association from their initial election. Directors shall be elected on a staggered basis commencing in May 2023.

Note: Putting together the new Board in May 2023 will be challenging and the proposal below is intended to project the outcome of a mature process. As we are in a recommissioning process and have recently expanded the reach of our membership, it may not be possible or desirable to stretch to achieve the objectives listed below and they should be seen as guidelines for the 2023 Governance and Nominating Committee process.

- (iii) The Board should consist of a maximum 20 members with appropriate coverage from the following regions:

- BC and the Yukon
- Alberta
- Saskatchewan and the NWT
- Manitoba and Nunavut
- Ontario
- Quebec
- The Maritimes
- Newfoundland and Labrador

- (iv) While regional coverage is important at this stage in the Association's recommissioning, it's of primary importance that Board membership reflects competence, diversity and a willingness to perform.

7. BOARD STANDING AND AD HOC COMMITTEES

NRAC By-Law # 1 (section 6.05) provides for Board committees. This Policy is intended to supplement the By-Law provisions.

a) Establishment of Committees

The Board may establish committees from time to time. The Board shall determine the duties of such committees. The committees of the Board shall be:

- (i) Standing committees, being those committees whose duties are normally continuous; and
- (ii) Ad hoc committees, being those committees appointed for specific duties whose mandate shall expire with the completion of the tasks assigned.

b) Standing Committees

The following Standing Committees shall include:

- (i) Executive Committee.
- (ii) Finance Committee.
- (iii) Governance and Nominating Committee.
- (iv) Membership Committee.
- (v) Communications Committee.
- (vi) Archives Committee.

c) Board Standing Committee Principles

The functions, duties, responsibilities, and powers of committees shall be provided in the resolution of the Board by which such committee is established or in terms of reference adopted by the Board. For greater certainty, the Board may delegate any of its powers to a committee comprised entirely of Directors.

(1) Relationship between the Board and Board Committees

- (i) The Board will determine the duties of each committee. The Board will approve terms of reference and membership of the Board committees annually on the recommendation of the Governance and Nominating Committee at the first regular meeting following the annual meeting.

- (ii) The Board will monitor the performance of its Board committees at each regular Board meeting through a summary written report and a verbal report by the committee chair related to specific recommendations of the Board committee for approval by the Board.
- (iii) The terms of reference for Board committees will be reviewed annually by the respective committee, which will make recommendations to the Governance and Nominating Committee for revisions as appropriate.
- (iv) Board committees may not speak or act for the Board except when formally given such authority for specific and time-limited purposes.
- (v) Unless otherwise specified, Board committees may not commit or bind the NRAC to any course of action and no decision of a committee is binding on the Board until approved or ratified by the Board.
- (vi) Unless otherwise authorized to do so, a Board committee may not engage independent legal counsel or consulting advice without prior Board approval.

(2) Mandate of Board Standing Committees

- (i) The number and type of committees should support the Board in fulfilling its defined responsibilities and maximizing the participation of individual Directors.
- (ii) Ensure the Board as a whole has “ownership” of the work that is done on its behalf by committees, task groups, etc.
- (iii) NRAC By-Law #1 Section 6.05 provides for the establishment of Board Committees; The terms of reference for Board Standing Committees including membership are defined in the Board Policy Manual.
- (iv) Board Standing Committees should establish annual goals, work plans and deliverables for Board approval.
- (v) Standing Committees may, with the approval of the Board, create sub-committees that are responsible to and report to the Standing Committee.
- (vi) The Board, through the Governance and Nominating Committee should conduct a periodic review of Board Standing and Special Committees to ensure the continuing relevance of their mandate and membership.

(3) Membership

- (i) The responsibility for participation on Board Standing Committees and other committees should be balanced among all Directors.
- (ii) All Directors should be expected to serve on at least one Board Standing or Ad Hoc or other special Committee.
- (iii) The majority of the members of the Executive Committee and the Governance and Nominating Committee shall be members of the Board of Directors. Otherwise, and except for the Executive Committee, membership does not have to be limited to members of the Board of Directors.
- (iv) The Chair, Vice-Chairs and members of Board Standing Committees are appointed annually by the Board on the recommendation of the Governance and Nominating Committee, following a canvass of Directors for their interests and preferences.
- (v) All members of Board Standing Committees will be considered voting members of the committee, unless otherwise designated.
