

UNTD TRANSITION-RECOMMISSIONING AIDE MEMOIRE FOR UNTDA REPS

TRANSITION MANDATE: To identify, preserve, and promote the history and values of the Canadian Naval Reserve with an emphasis on citizenship, leadership, honesty, commitment, service, and personal discipline by providing opportunities for members to support the Navy and for convivial social interaction.

TRANSITION MISSION STATEMENT: To recommission the Association to adapt to meet the needs of the naval reserve of today and the future within a new, expanded naval reserve association welcoming all ranks of the active and retired naval reserve and those interested in naval reserve affairs.

MESSAGES

- The UNTDA has eyes on the future horizon of Canada's naval reserve as it recommissions itself to better play a role in that future.
- UNTDA members are committed to the opportunity to continue to support the naval reserve through participation in a proposed new naval reserve association.
- The UNTDA is committed to maintaining its relevancy through its legacy of long naval service and continuing commitment to the future of Canada's naval reserve in the context of a new naval reserve association.
- Through the creation of a new Canadian naval reserve association the UNTDA is adapting its organization and culture to the contemporary naval reserve to include active and retired naval reserves at all rank levels.
